Life Group Discussion Questions:

Note: 1, 8-9 are general questions asked at Pathway weekly.

1. How is God at work in and around your life?
2. When you hear the phrase “fresh vision” what comes to mind? Pastor Brian said, “fresh vision is an invitation to transformation”. What did he mean by that?
3. How does this idea “fresh vision is an invitation to transformation” apply to our church vision to: “be the church: restoring, raising up, and reaching out”?
4. Read Acts 10:1-8. How did the customs of the day stand in the way of the Gospel reaching the Gentiles? How does this happen today in our lives?
5. Read Acts 10:9-16. God reveals a fresh vision to Peter and Peter receives it by faith. He trusts and obeys God despite his own potential hang-ups. How is Peter an example for us throughout Scripture of someone who trusts God’s fresh vision for his life?
 - Note: Pastor Brian referenced John 21, Acts 2, Acts 3-4, and Acts 10 in this section as moments where the pull of pride, power, and even prejudice did not keep Peter from the invitation to transformation.
6. In Acts 10:17-43 we see Peter share the Gospel with the Gentiles and their lives are transformed. Read 2 Corinthians 5:12-21. How does the Gospel transform our lives and our relationships? How is the Gospel inviting you into transformation in this season?
7. Read Acts 10:44-48. The Holy Spirit falls on the Gentiles, fills them, and transforms the early Church and its mission. What has been the role of the Holy Spirit in your relationship with God and with others? Are you open to a fresh vision of the Holy Spirit working in and through you?
 - Note: For further help regarding the Holy Spirit see John 14:15-27 and 1 Corinthians 12:1-13 as a starting point.
8. How did you answer the “next step questions” from the message?
9. How can we pray for you and support you this week?
