SERMON NOTES

August 25, 2024

Speaker: Dr. Brian Bennett

Jesus Movement: “There’s Always a Way”

[Acts 24-26]

Jesus Movement: “There’s Always a Way”

[Acts 27-28]

There’s always a way through the “_____” of life when we follow Jesus.

[Acts 27:1-38; James 4:6-8]

- _____ is the key to finding our way, not just man’s wisdom.

There’s always a way for the “_____ or _____” in life when we follow Jesus.

[Acts 27:39-28:10; Romans 8:28]

- _____ for our good with His protection, healing, and provision.

There’s always a way when you _____ Jesus and make Him known.

[Acts 28:28-31; Philippians 1:21-26]

- _____ always prevails, and our life is only wasted if we aren’t sharing Him with others.

Next Step Questions:

- Have you accepted Jesus as the only way to the Father?
- Are you looking for His way through the storms, shipwrecks, and snakebites of life?
- Are you passionately following Jesus and making Him known?

Jesus MOVEMENT

Pathway Group Discussion Questions:

Note: 1, 8-9 are general questions asked at Pathway weekly.

1. How is God at work in and around your life?
2. Pastor Brian said, “When Jesus is your way, then there’s always a way? Do you agree? Explain.
3. Read Acts 27:9-11 and 27:18-26. What was the difference between Paul’s opinion and God’s revelation to Him? Why does this matter if we are going to follow Jesus through the storms of life?
4. Paul journey included switching ships, a storm, a shipwreck, and a snakebite. What does this teach us about how God makes a way in every season of life?
5. The drawing of our EQ (emotional quotient/emotional intelligence) and FQ (faith quotient) led to the statement “pride cannot travel the path that God leads”. How do these concepts encourage and/or challenge your walk with Jesus?
6. Read James 4:6-10. How does this show that humility and submission are needed for us to follow Jesus and experience His protection, healing, and provision?
7. Read Acts 28:28-31 and Philippians 1:21-26. Paul did not waste his life but used every moment to passionately follow Jesus and make Him known. How can we do this as well?
8. How did you answer the “next step questions” from the message?
 - Have you accepted Jesus as the only way to the Father?
 - Are you following His way through the storms, shipwrecks, and snakebites of life?
 - Are you passionately following Jesus and making Him known?
9. How can we pray for you and support you this week?
